Farmers and Mechanics of New-York!

Look Here!

The Union, the Tyler Loco-Foco organ, opposes the election of Messrs. Bradish and Furman be- the presiding officer. cause they are friendly to a PROTECTIVE TARIFF and New-York's receiving her share of the Land Proceeds; and supports Messrs. Bouck and Dickinson on the ground that they are opposed to a Protective Tariff and "in favor of low duties sufficient only for Revenue"-which is precisely Mr. Calhoun's doctrine. Are you in favor of such a Tariff as this ?

All the Loco-Foco and Tyler journals of this City are deadly hostile to a Protective Tariff, and are misrepresenting that just passed. The last Evening Post clamors loudly against the duty of $1 per gallon on Brandy, and predicts extensive smuggling.

('Thy wish was father, Harry, to that thought.') All the Leco-Foco journals are clamoring against the duty on cheap Cotton goods, and asserting that they impose a tax to their full amount on the consumers. That is, a vard of Cotton cloth on which the duty is nine cents, but which sells for ten cents, would cost only one cent if there were no duty! This is the Loco-Foco assumption, persisted in from day to day, in the face of the most unquestionable demonstrations. But the Producing Classes of this country know better.

-Farmers, Artisans and Laborers of New-York the election of Bouck and Dickinson will be the overthrow of the Protective System, and will bring us back to twenty cents a pound for Woel, the Country full of Foreign Goods, no market for Home Products and no price for Labor. Elect BRADISH and FURMAN and the Protective Policy will be sustained, and the prices of Home Products and your Labor will certainly improve .-Act, then, Freemen, for Yourselves!

CABINET CHANGES .- The Commercial's usually well informed correspondent states that Mr. WEB-STER's resignation is daily expected at Washington, and that Hon. Louis M'LANE of Delaware is now expected to take his place. Mr. Cushing will soon resign his seat in Congress, and probably be called to succeed Mr. FORWARD, who resigns the Treasury Department. Meantime Mr. Cushing accompanies or follows President Tyler on a visit to the Rip-Raps, whence he will return about the 1st of October to assume the duties of his new station.

The Loco-Feco papers of this City have thoughtlessly published a statement that two young women at work in the Lowell factories have built a neat two-story house near Salem, Mass. out of the earnings of their labor .- If these girls had not been taxed half their earnings (according to Loco-Foco logic) by our former Protective Tariffs, they | such nominally low rank. would probably now be washing dishes at seventyfive cents per week each, and paying much more for their clothes than now. The Protective Policy, to our certain knowledge, more than doubled the wages of Female Labor universally in New-England, within the ten years which followed its adoption. Let it be sustained and perfected, and a general improvement in the condition of the Laboring Classes will be its sure result.

The Sun arges the bullies of the 'Indignation' hun bug to attempt personal violence upon the Editors of those journals which dared to state that women of bad character were seen in the Procession. Is not be re a beautiful specimen and inculcation of respect for the laws, is a paper which denounces individual conflicts as murderous? But no body has ever said that the greater portion of the females who rode in that ridiculous Process on were not respectable and virtuous. On the contrary it was because they were and are so that we p otested against a pupper-show which, for the basest 12 ty purposes, expessed them to improper associations. We trust nothing of the sort will ever again be attempted.

Foul Play Somewhere.

We are most reliably informed that, in a meeting of the Tyler General Committee of this City. the proposition to cast the Tyler votes for Wm. C. Bouck for Governor prevailed, after much resistance and discussion, by a majority of one. That majority was obtained on the strength of a positive assurance given by one of the members that Col. Bouck was pledged to support the Administration of Mr. Tyler and had declared himself op-

We desire to call the special attention of the Albany Argus to this matter. It strikes us that Col. Bouck must have been misunderstood, one way or the other; for we do not think the Regency Chairman pro tem., after which a Committee was Convention would have nominated for Governor a appointed to nominate permanent officers of the known adversary of Mr. Van Buren. Yet if Bouck is run under such auspices and on such assurances as the above, his vote, whether large or small, will count against the late President. We have no choice or wish to interfere with Mr. Bouck's politics, but we think every fair man has a right to mer was a venerable Soldier of the Revolution, know where he stands on a question so imminent Mr. Reynolds, of Boxboro, whose venerable ap-AT AUBURN, September 21st, 1342.—The undersigned, a Committee of Whig Young Men, appointed by the Clay to inform the public whether Col. MAINE .- As we have already stated, the Whigs of Maine, seeing no good likely to result from contesting an election in which their opponents had every advantage, while the amount to be gained was small, reserved their energies for a more important occasion, and staid away from the Polls. (The Members of Congress are to be chosen next year) The Loco-Foco vote will probably be 5,000 less than last year; the Whigs possibly still lower. The returns we have received are

We have examined, with much interest, the printed "Defence of Lieut Charles Wilkes from the Charges on which he has been tried." It occupies 50 pages, and is an elaborate and able performance. The writer meets every charge with great fulness of detail, and puts them in a very different light from the witnesses on the trial. Considerable acerbity of feeling is shown, as is natural enough; and the conclusion at which we have arrived is, that Lieut. Wilkes is an officer of talent, energy and zeal, and that the difficulties in his cruise arose partly from his excitability of temper, and partly from the jealousy of his brother officers at the high station given to an officer of Great Whig Convention in the Old Cradlo-Nomination of Henry Clay and John Davis. Correspondence of the Tribune.

BOSTON, September 14, 1842. In pursuance of a call, issued by the State Committee, the Great Whig Convention of Massachusetts assembled in the Old Cradle of Liberty this morning at 10 o'cleck. The hall was entirely filled by one of the most talented and enthusiastic body of men that ever convened within its time-honored posed to running Mr. Van Buren for President. | walls, representing every part of the Old Commonwealth, actuated by one common impulse, and fired with the resolute determination to rescue the country from the grasp of Loco-Foco misrule.

DANIEL L. GIEBENS, Esq. of Boston, was elected Convention. This Committee nominated for President, Hon. ABBOTT LAWRENCE, of Boston, who was unanimously chosen; and, when he ascended the platform, was received with immense applause. The usual number of Vice-Presidents and Secretaries were appointed. Among the for-

After a most appropriate prayer by Rev. Wm. and forcible speech, thanking the Convention for the honor conferred upon him, and expressing his views in respect to the present aspect of the Whig cause. He was cheered with an enthasiasm which showed the perfect unanimity that reigned in the onvention.

Mr. KELLOGG, of Pittsfield, moved that the Convention proceed to nominate candidates for Governor and Lieutentant Governor viva voce, which motion was carried unanimously. When the President called for nominations, one name, and one only, burst from every lip, and that was the name of JOHN DAVIS; and when the question was put to the Convention, he was nominated by acclamation as the Whig candidate for Governor. Ho :. GEORGE HULL, the present incumbent, was then nominated in the same manner, and with the same enthusiasm, for Lieut. Governor.

Mr. Newton of Pittsfield then moved that the louvention proceed in the same manner to nominate candidates for President and Vice President of the United States. This motion was received with deafening cheers, and carried unanimously; and when the President called for nominations, a scene was presented which beggars all description. But one man was thought of for the first office, and the name of HENRY CLAY was echoed and re-echoed from every part of the ball. The question was put and carried by a thundering ave, and when the negative was called, not a single r. spense was heard. The members of the Conrention thes sprang to their feet, at the suggestion of old father CLOUGH, a Democrat of the olden time, and gave to Harry of the West NINE CHEERS, every one of which made the very walls of the old Cradle tremble! JOHN DAVIS was nominated for Vice President is the same manner, and with no less enthusiasm.

A committee was then appointed to prepare resolutions, and another to wait upon Messrs. Davis and Hull to inform them of their nomination; after which able and eloquent speeches were made by Hon. OSMYN BAKER, Member of Congress, S. H. Walley, Jr., of Roxbury, and Hon. LEVERETT SALTONSTALL of Salem. Mr. Baker alluded to the Hon. EDWARD STANLEY as the honored and patriotic individual by whose vote the Tariff bill was saved from defeat, which allusion elicited three cheers!

The Convention adjourned at 1 o'clock to meet t half-past 3, when Hon. C. M. CONRAD of Louisiana is invited to speak. An evening session will probably be held. HANCOCK.

The Clay Raising in New-Jersey.

TRENTON, Sept. 15, 1842. In my patriotic hurry yesterday, giving a very hort account of the New-Jersey Mass Convention, I omitted to mention the enthusiastic reception of the New-Jersey Congressional Delegation. They were received with open hearts and willing hands. Senators DAYTON and MILLER, and Hon. J. F. RANDOLPH and Wm. HALSTEAD made ad lresses that were received by the thousands assemoled in the right way. The Protective Policy was most ably discussed, and many a hard-working mechanic present gave his hearty assent to the fundamental Whig principles, and "HARRY OF THE WEST." The late Loco-Foco address advocating 'Incidental Protection," and a " Judicious Tariff," was dissected, limb from limb, and the ridiculous plea of the Loces to be Tariff men, were portrayed with a master touch by Senator Dayton .-Rely upon this fact, that the Mechanics and Manufacturers of New-Jersey are wide awake. Never ear the Jersey Blues!

Our Salem friends were most outrageously cheated out of the pleasure of attending this Convention. The steamer Rainbow was chartered by them to take the Delegates to Trenton; when lo. on Tuesday evening they were informed that the boat was sold and unable to comply with her engagement. At least 500 were thus forcibly kept away. But there were some 30 or 40 choice spirits who would not be baffled, and who, by riding all night, arrived here in season to partake of our forty guns which our Philaderphia Whigs were waiting to give them on passing; but they will have one of eighty when the news arrives that they have swept their County next month. I trust our friends will meantime hold a Mass Convention in that County. Yours. J. D. H.

PAUL CLIFFORD .- We have here another numper of Harper's cheap series of standard novelsand cheap indeed they are-handsomely printed in double columns, on excellent paper, with a fine steel engraving, all for 25 cents. The Railway Train from Boston to Norwich over the Worcester Road, on Wednesday evening, ran over a cow lying on the track, about three miles West of Worcester, running several cars off the track, and doing them some damage. No one was burt but the cow, which was killed of course. One or two of the cars were got on again by main strength; and, after an hour and a half of hard work, an engine came on from Worcester, which took on the others, and dragged all back to Worcester, where the damaged were left, and the whole resumed and completed their trip to Norwich without further trouble. The place where the accident took place was such as to preclude the idea of danger.

ARREST OF COINERS .- High Constable Hays having been informed that a large quantity of counterfeit fifty and ten cent pieces was in circulation in the upper eastern section of the city, and having also ascertained that it was uttered by men occupying the upper part of house No. 259 Stanton street, proceeded thither yesterday, accompanied by Justice Matsell, Mr. Osborne, clerk of police, and officers Tappan and F. F. Smith. In the 3d story of the house they found and arrested two men, named Edward Kelly and Owen McIstee, and found on their person some $13 of the counterfeit coin in 50 and 10 cent pieces. In different parts of the house they also found a considerable quantity of the material for making the coin-the tools or implements and moulds, and over the fire a skillet containing a quantity of the molten metal. The High Constable and his assistants marched the prisoners down to the police office, and they were lodged in prison for examination before the United States Court. EASTWARD TRAVEL .- The steamboats Worcester and Cleopatra have been purchased by Capt. Vanderbilt, who now runs the regular daily line between this city and Norwich, in connec tion with the Railroad to Boston. Better boats. better accommodations, better management or fare, no man can ask; and we heartily commend this line to public favor.

We regret to learn that the ruinous opposition on the route to Boston is still kept up, at least a part of the time, causing the fare to fluctuate from $4 through to $2,50. It seems evident that the latter sum is lower than a distance of 240 miles, part steamboat and part Railroad, can be run and make a living business of it, and we could wish that this ruinous rivalry were at an end. Is there no way to adjust all differences, fix the fare at a just rate and kerp it there.
